

Collins, Berry Awarded 2008 OXO World Traveler Ambassador Scholarships

Shellie Moore Collins, Chattanooga, Okla., and Stacia Berry, Cheyenne, Wyo., were awarded the 2008 OXO World Traveler Ambassador Scholarships during the 2008 National Western Stock Show

(NWSS) in Denver. The OXO World Traveler Scholarship Program was developed by Linda Matasovic Swiercinsky and her sister, the late Marilyn Matasovic, in memory of their parents, John and Estelle Matasovic.

The OXO World Traveler Scholarship is funded through the Hereford Youth Foundation of America (HYFA) and financially supports Hereford youth to participate in the World Hereford Conference every four years. This year the World Hereford Conference will be in Denmark and will include pre- and post-conference tours along with its general session.

Shellie is the 26-year-old daughter of Charlie and Darla Moore, Modoc, Kan., and is married to Colby Collins. Shellie is a graduate of Texas A&M University and a past chairman of the National Junior Hereford Association.

Stacia is the 24-year-old daughter of Jay and Janice Berry of Cheyenne, Wyo. Stacia is a senior at the University of Wyoming and will graduate in May with an animal science degree. She served as the Wyoming intern for the 2008 NWSS and was a speaker at the Citizens of the West Banquet. HW

Shellie Moore Collins, Chattanooga, Okla., and Stacia Berry, Cheyenne, Wyo., were awarded the 2008 World Hereford Traveler Ambassador Scholarships during the NWSS Jan. 19. Pictured (l to r) are: John Matasovic Swiercinsky, Janelle and John Swiercinsky, Collins, Berry, and Linda Swiercinsky.