

Gebhart Wins Royal Ten Scholarship

Roxane Gebhart, Claremore, Okla., was among this year's Royal Ten scholarship winners. The Royal Ten program is designed to provide an opportunity for college students to be advocates for the food and fiber industry and the American Royal. Participants each received a $2,500 scholarship and assisted with the 109th American Royal including attending media events and civic organization meetings, making school visits, and participating in a host of other activities.

Gebhart is the National Junior Hereford Association (NJHA) vice president and is attending Oklahoma State University, majoring in animal science/business with a pre-law option. She is the 20-year-old daughter of Richard and Susan Gebhart. After graduation she plans to pursue a law degree from the University of Tulsa with the goal of one day working as a lawyer or lobbyist for U.S. agriculture.

Gebhart is also active in the Oklahoma Junior Cattlemen's Association, Oklahoma Club Calf Association and FFA. In FFA she was awarded the state beef production proficiency award. In addition, she is a member of the Oklahoma Air National Guard, serving in the 138th Fighter Wing, Services Flight, located in Tulsa. HW
