Oklahoma and Wisconsin Juniors Claim Top Honors in Junior Hereford Show

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – An Oklahoma member of the National Junior Hereford Association (NJHA) claimed top honors at the American Royal Junior Hereford Show on Oct. 27.

Alan Miller, Gridley, Ill. judged the 97 head show in Hale Arena at the American Royal Complex.

The grand champion female, H BL Daisy 719 ET, was exhibited by Cierra Collins, Chattanooga, Okla. The Feb. 15, 2017, daughter of H/TSR/CHEZ Full Throttle ET was first named champion junior yearling female.

Lauren May, Mineral Point, Wisc., exhibited the reserve champion female, LAND Miss Who Maker 713ET. She is a March 23, 2017, daughter of ECR Who Maker 210 ET.

“The junior show was made up of an exceptional group of females,” Miller says. “Top to bottom, the quality was outstanding in both the females and the juniors exhibiting them.”
