

What's New? | Association News and Events

"What's New?" is a column designed to keep you in-the-know about Hereford happenings. You can also sign up for Hereford Headlines, a weekly electronic newsletter from the American Hereford Association (AHA), and additional Hereford news by sending an email to info@hereford.org. Archived issues are posted at Hereford.org.

Herefords hit the Hill

With the National Western Stock Show (NWSS) just over a month away, it's time to get ready for the Hereford events scheduled to take place Jan. 16-19, 2019. The National Hereford Junior Heifer Show will take place Wednesday, Jan. 16, at 8 a.m., and the National Hereford Bull Show is set for Thursday, Jan. 17, at 8 a.m. The National Hereford Female Show will take place Saturday, Jan. 19, at 8 a.m. For a complete schedule and additional information, including details of the Mile High Night Sale, see Page 78.

Lowderman Cattle Co. and Michelini Cattle Co. donate Lot 1

Lowderman Cattle Co., Macomb, Ill., and Michelini Cattle Co., Peru, Ill., have generously donated the 2019 Lot 1 Foundation Female, LCC 6964 Queen Bee 43F ET (reg. no. P43923236). All proceeds from Lot 1 go to the Hereford Youth Foundation of America (HYFA) in support of the "growing a Lasting Legacy" campaign and supporting leadership and education for Hereford youth.

Queen Bee is an April 5, 2018, daughter of R Leader 6964 and out of H GO LCC Kylie 2137 ET.

"43F is a direct daughter of the powerful Kylie donor who has become an elite producer of the quality, power and performance, with and added maternal punch," says Cody Lowderman. "Queen Bee is exceptionally attractive, yet bold and powerful throughout and reads with a balanced set of EPDs. She's dark red and heavily pigmented with all the bells and whistles to be a top-tier donor prospect to produce value-added offspring."

Visit HerefordYouthFoundation.org for more information on Lot 1, or contact Amy Cowan at acowan@hereford.org.

Summer internship opportunities

The AHA is offering two summer internship opportunities for college students looking to gain hands-on experience working with youth activities. Both internships span from mid-May to mid-August, with specific starting and ending dates depending on the applicant's availability. The internships will be completed at the American Hereford Association's (AHA) office in Kansas City, Mo.

Junior activities internship — The selected applicant will assist the AHA youth department with the planning and execution of junior shows and leadership events. Applicants must be enrolled in an agriculture-related major and should be self-starters, detail-oriented, outgoing and able to work well with all types of people. Travel to the Junior National Hereford Expo and other shows are required.

To apply, send a cover letter, resume and references by Feb. 15 to Amy Cowan, AHA director of youth activities, acowan@hereford.org or 11500 N. Ambassador Dr., Ste. 410, Kansas City, MO, 64153.

HPI internship — The selected applicant will assist the Creative Services team and the Hereford World staff in the production of the Hereford World magazine and other creative projects. Applicants must be working toward a degree in agricultural communications, agricultural journalism or a related field, and must have strong writing and editing skills along with knowledge of Adobe InDesign and Photoshop and Associated Press (AP) style.

To apply, please submit a cover letter, resume, three writing samples and references by Dec. 7, 2018, to Caryn Vaught, HPI production manager, at cvaught@hereford.org or 11500 N. Ambassador Dr., Ste. 410, Kansas City, MO, 64153. HW
