

Champions Selected in Mile High City

Mother-daughter duo evaluate Herefords on the Hill.

Herefords braved frigid temperatures and made the Mile High City their own at the National Western Stock Show, Jan. 11-13. Judges Terri Barber, Corralles, N.M., and Mary Barber, Channing, Texas, sorted the 34-head of bulls and 87-head of heifers in the open show, Saturday, Jan. 13. A total of 331 Hereford cattle were exhibited throughout the three-day event.

“The quality has just been phenomenal,” Terri said before selecting the champion horned female. “We knew it was going to be a breathtaking day, not only by the temperatures, but by the quality of the cattle we’ve got out here; it’s certainly not disappointed us at all.”
