

Herefords Reach New Heights

Welcome to cattle country — Herefords show at Cattlemen's Congress.

Hereford excitement was palpable in Oklahoma City's barns and new OG+E Arena Jan. 7-10. The National Hereford Show at the 2026 Cattlemen's Congress featured 408 head throughout the junior, open and pen shows.

The historic week on the Oklahoma red dirt culminated with the Hereford Night in OKC National Hereford Sale grossing $542,250. Pick of the 2025 fall calf crop from Hoffman Ranch topped the sale at $55,000.

Herefords were dominant in the supreme overall selections, winning two of the three drives. Stellpflug All That ET, exhibited by Hoffman Ranch, Thedford, Neb.; Lindskov's LT Ranch, Isabel, S.D.; and Buck Cattle Co., Madill, Okla., was named supreme champion bull and HAWK Priya 11M ET, shown by Ty Pezanoski, Peru, Ill., was slapped supreme champion junior female.

Flip through the pages of this special section to recap results from Cattlemen's Congress. HW

Cattlemen's Congress coverage includes:

- | | | | |
|-----------|---|-----------|--|
| 42 | Bald Faces Under the Bright Lights | 56 | National Hereford Sale Grosses $542,250 |
| 45 | Juniors Step Into OG+E | 58 | Open Show Division and Class Placings |
| 48 | Hereford Herdsman of the Year: On a Mission | 64 | Pen Show Division and Class Placings |
| 52 | Pen Wins at Cattlemen's Congress | | |

